

A814869

28 September 2018

To Whom It May Concern

Compliance with the Drinking Water Standards for New Zealand

During the 12 months ending 30 June 2018 the Gisborne City water supply was fully compliant with the Drinking Water Standards for New Zealand.

Below is a link to the most recent Ministry of Health report on the drinking water quality of all registered networked drinking supplies:

<https://www.health.govt.nz/publication/annual-report-drinking-water-quality-2016-2017>

Yours sincerely

Hanao Morete
Water Cadet