#note 2: Building Consent Invoice:

On completion of processing (or withdrawal of the application), an invoice for the balance of payment will be sent to the owner/agent. Estimated inspection charges, levies and processing costs, including costs incurred through engagement of external expertise will be invoiced. The invoice must be paid and the consent uplifted within 30 days of approval or your consent may be refused. Processing costs will be recovered for all refused applications. Additional costs for amendments and extra inspections will be invoiced separately, prior to the issue of your code compliance certificate.

If this application is for a new building, a relocation or substantial renovation, you may be charged a footpath and or street damage deposit of $1,000. An additional $600.00 will also apply to relocations as a road sign damage deposit. Commercial buildings in the CBD will be charged $300 per linear meter street frontage. Where relevant, the deposit will be invoiced with your building consent. A $60.00 administration fee will be deducted from your refund along with any applicable repair costs.

Your consent may require payment of a Development Contribution (this generally applies to new habitable or commercial buildings). For more information contact Council's Development Contribution Officer. If a Development Contribution is required, a notice and invoice for the amount payable will be included with your building consent document.
